OFFICERS KILL A PRISONER

Alva D. McClure of Leitchfield, the Unfortunate.

Was Boisterous and Drinking and Attempted to Cut One of the Officers.

DECEASED LEAVES A FAMILY.

Leitchfield, Ky., July 12.—Alva D. McClure, son of J. P. McClure, a jeweler, was shot and killed on the public square last night while resisting arrest. He was boisterous and drinking, and Town Marshal Tom Blair and Deputy Sheriff Hardin Coppage attempted to arrest him. McClure drew a knife and cut Coppage in the head, when both officers began firing. One bullet took effect in McClure's back and he ran to a yard just off the public square, where he fell, dying in twenty minutes. McClure, who leaves a widow and two small children, had been drinking during the afternoon, and was taken home by his brother. Early in the night he returned to the public square and the shooting resulted.

TO FEDERAL COURT

THE PEOPLE'S HOME PURCHAS-
ING CASES WILL PROBA-BLY GO.

Indictments For Officers, Stockholders and Agents of the Company.
Will Be Asked For.

One of the gentlemen interested in the investigation into the affairs of the People's Home Purchasing company said today that an effort will be made to have all the affairs of the company brought before the federal court as well as the state court, and that from the evidence at hand indictments would most probably be secured against all the stockholders and officers of the company, and every one who had anything to do with its management or direction; that they were just as guilty as Bordeaux and the courts will be asked to indict them.

"FIVE DOLLARS"

Said the Judge and the Prisoner Fell
Dead, Creating a Panic in the Court Room.

St. Louis, July 12.—Edward Powers, 45 years old, fell dead Monday afternoon in the Dayton street police court just after Judge Pollard had imposed a fine of $5 for intoxication. The words, "Five dollars," had barely left the judge's lips when Powers fell over against the rail dead. Heart trouble is supposed to have been the cause of his death.

The court had the usual large Monday docket of prisoners. When Powers' death occurred a small-sized panic was created. Several women fainted, and some declared they would not step up to the bar for "fatal sentences," as they said.

They were soon quieted, and were given "fatal sentences" by the saddened judge.

WHEAT AT CHICAGO.

Lots to Be Had and Down the Staple Goes.

Chicago, July 12.—Longs dumped their holdings overboard at the opening today. Wheat market ruled weak. Every commission house seemed to have wheat for sale, and traders hammered prices viciously. Declines of over a cent were recorded.

GRANDSON FOR EDWARD.

Princess of Wales Gives Birth to a Boy.

London, July 12.—The princess of Wales gave birth this morning to a boy at Sandringham Palace. There is disappointment in royal circles and the family because the new arrival is a boy instead of a girl. Four former children were boys and the princess had hoped for a girl.

SCRIMMAGE OVER POWERS.

Was a Very Lively Affair, From All Reports.

Cincinnati, July 12.—Jailer Ploger and three other men are out on bail after arrest by order of Mayor Helmbold of Newport, Ky. Police-men Flinn and Ratigan are out on bond having been arrested charged with resisting United States officers in the discharge of their duty and a warrant has been issued against Mayor Helmbold on that charge.

During the fight which followed when the jailer refused to obey the mayor's order to place Powers in a cell other than that prepared for him, the mayor's front teeth were knocked out, revolvers were drawn and almost the entire police force of Newport was called into the action. The jailer claims that the order of United States Judge Cochran, when that official assumed jurisdiction in the Powers case and committed Powers to the Newport jail, gave direct control over the prisoner to the jailer and that the mayor had no right or authority in the matter.

The charge against the jailer and the three men arrested with him, is assault and battery, and resisting an officer. The warrants against the mayor and the two policemen, were issued by the United States commissioner after consultation with the district attorney who first directed the United States marshal and the jailer to take Powers to his cell and try to leave him there. This was resisted by the two policemen acting under orders from Mayor Helmbold and the warrants were then issued by the commissioner.

WITHDRAWAL

Of Bankruptcy Suit Against Potter
Bank Attempted.

Louisville, July 12.—An effort to withdraw the petition to force the bank of P. J. Potter's Sons, of Bowling Green, into bankruptcy, was made yesterday afternoon, but abandoned late in the day, when it was learned that each of the 6,000 creditors must be notified of such procedure. A consultation was held in Jacob Solinger's office during the day, which was attended by attorneys representing several Bowling Green creditors and the assignee and attorneys for the Louisville creditors. Local creditors consented to join with the Bowling Green representatives in withdrawing the suit, but when the method of procedure was investigated it was discovered that the consent of each creditor must be secured, which would necessitate an expenditure of more than $2,000. Notification of each of the creditors was believed to be too expensive an undertaking to be attempted and the effort was given up.

CARTRIDGE FACTORY EXPLODES

Marseilles France Scene of the Disaster.

Marseilles, France, July 12.—A terrific explosion occurred this morning in a secret cartridge factory operated by a man named Saval and the building was wrecked and a number of people killed. Fire followed the explosion and the building was soon in ashes. The bodies of Saval and others were taken out.

TO SEE ROOSEVELT.

Gompers Goes to Oyster Bay For a Conference.

Washington, July 12.—President Gompers, of the American Federation of Labor, and Vice President Duncan, have gone to Oyster Bay for a conference with President Roosevelt this afternoon. They will discuss the labor questions and Chinese immigration with the president. The conference is held at the request of laboring men.

N. C. and St. L. Dividend.

Nashville, Tenn., July 12.—The directors of the Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis railway met here yesterday and declared a two and one-half per cent. semi-annual dividend after appropriating a handsome sum for improvements and purchases. One of the most important acts of the board was to purchase the Swan Valley railroad, two and one-half miles in length, running from Centerville to the phosphate mines. The purchase was a cash transaction, the road and its equipment being purchased for $17,500. The road was owned by the Swan Valley Phosphate company. The board will extend the road two and one-half miles.

JAPS' OPERATIONS WILL CONTINUE

They Won't Cease Pending the Peace Negotiations.

They Recognize the Fact They Cannot Take Any Chances With Tricky Russians.

THE MIKADO IS NOT SANGUINE.

Washington, July 12.—The fact that the Japanese propose to continue their military operations in Manchuria pending the development in the peace negotiations is not a surprise to the officials of the government who have been studying and keeping in close touch with the situation in the far east. It is recognized in all quarters that the Japanese cannot afford to take any chances at all. The Japanese, too, appreciate that fact as their operations evidence. The Mikado is not sanguine over the negotiations, as he well knows the delaying and tricky tactics of the Russian diplomacy, and that little confidence can be placed in it.

FAST TIME

SCOTT BEATS ALL TRAIN REC-ORDS WITH SPECIAL.

Extraordinary Run From Los Angeles to Chicago—Twelve Hours
Faster Than Schedule.

Chicago, July 11.—With every carblackened by a delicious record-breaking run from Los Angeles to Chicago, the Walter Scott special on the Santa Fe railroad arrived here at 11:54 a. m., having beaten all previous records, as well as bettering the special train's own exacting schedule.

Consisting of a baggage car, diner and private living car, the train, which left Los Angeles at 1 p. m. Sunday, came into the Polk-street station today almost at top speed, having made the run—2,265 miles—in forty-four hours and fifty-six minutes. This is a trifle over twelve hours faster than the time of the regular Santa Fe limited; it is three hours and four minutes faster than the original contract called for (which was forty-eight hours), and beats even the later schedule of forty-five hours by six minutes.

The best previous time for this run was made by the Peacock special in 1900 in a "race against death," but the record of this train, by the performance consummated today is beaten by seven hours and thirty-five minutes. Extraordinary time was made eastward from Dodge City, Kan., where the train arrived thirty-five minutes late last night, at 9:31 o'clock. But a good roadbed, clear track and expert work by the engineer and fireman not only enabled Scott to regain his lost time, but to beat his closest and most hopeful calculation by six minutes.

The train was in excellent condition when it arrived, save for the coating of dust and grime. The crew was smiling and happy, although showing traces of the strain they had undergone.

TRACTION LINE.

From Madisonville to Nortonville
Under Consideration.

Madisonville, Ky., July 12.—A meeting of the Madisonville Commercial club was held Monday night and plans for the contemplated Interurban road from here to Nortonville discussed. The St. Bernard Coal company has offered to give the right of way over their lands and the prospects for the road are very bright.

Pay Depositors on Demand.

St. Louis July 12.—Receiver Spencer, of the People's United States bank was today directed by Judge McIlhenny of the St. Louis county circuit court to pay depositors on demand. The order was issued at the request of Receiver Spencer. On Spencer's suggestion also, the bond of the receiver was increased from $250,000 to $1,000,000.

DOG EATERS.

Louisville Has a Colony of Them at Fontaine Ferry.

Louisville, July 12.—Agent William Tynan, of the Humane Society, visited the Igorrote Village at Fontaine Ferry Park yesterday afternoon to investigate the manner of killing dogs, complaint having been received at the society's headquarters that the method of killing was very painful. The investigation proved the method inhumane and the management was instructed to adopt a quicker and less painful method or steps would be taken to prosecute those responsible.

Judge Charles A. Wilson, attorney for the Amusement Company, visited the office of the society this morning and gave assurance that in the future the dogs would be instantly killed in as humane manner as possible.

Miss Katherine Haley, secretary of the Humane Society, said this morning:

"We cannot prevent those persons eating dogs any more than we can stop chicken killing. However, we can and will compel them to kill them in a painless manner."

EQUITABLE DIRECTORS.

New Ones Elected Tuesday to Be Announced Later.

New York, July 12.—A sufficient number of directors to carry on the business of the Equitable Life Assurance Society, without, however, filling all vacancies caused by resignations, were selected today at a meeting of the trustees of the majority stock. The names will not be made public until after they have been presented to the board for formal acceptance. Much comment was excited by the publication in a morning paper of the testimony taken at the investigation by Supt. Hendricks. Former Governor Odell, in an interview at Newburg, stated that he has seen none of the evidence until its publication and offered important suggestions for remedial action at the present extra session of the legislature.

That the services of Second Vice President Tarbell will be retained was announced by Chairman Paul Morton, who declined to discuss the disclosure in the Hendricks report. No official copy of the testimony has yet reached District Attorney Jerome, in spite, as he said today, of efforts on his part to secure a copy.

A TRIUMPH FOR KENTUCKY.

Presented Banner at National Christian Endeavor Convention for Gain in Membership.

Washington, D. C., July 12.—Kentucky came out with flying colors at the national convention of Christian Endeavorers at Baltimore last night. In the midst of a great demonstration the Endeavorers from Kentucky were presented a beautiful silk banner of exquisite workmanship and many delicate shades and lines in recognition of the fact that the gain in membership in Kentucky since November, 1902, has been more than 10 per cent. The actual gain was 11 1-2 per cent., and the number of new local societies formed was 61. The Licking Valley Society, of Louisville, also received a handsome pennant for having made more than 10 per cent. gain since June 1, 1904.

FEAR ANOTHER MUTINY.

Russian Squadron Is Delayed on That Account.

Kustentzi, Roumania, July 12.—The Russian squadron seems to be delayed here owing to fear that another mutiny will break out should the vessels put to sea. The fact that 55 sailors from the Kniaz Potemkin who surrendered have been imprisoned on board the different vessels of the squadron awaiting trial for rebellion, has caused intense indignation among the crews and as a consequence there are fears of another mutiny.

E-Paducah Sues.

Mayfield, Ky., July 12.—Mr. J. T. Myles, formerly of Paducah, has filed a suit in circuit court against Taylor Fields for $1500, and prays for a general attachment on property of the defendant. The petition alleges that they entered into a partnership in buying and selling tobacco and that about $3,000 had been cleared during the time they have been in business and that the defendant has so far failed to turn over half of the money to the plaintiff.

MINISTER TAKAHIRA TO SEE PRESIDENT

To Confer on Peace Commission
Plans at Oyster Bay.

Japanese Commissioners Expected to Arrive About the Last of July.

NOTES OF THE COMMISSION.

Washington, July 12.—By appointment Japanese Minister Takahira will call on the president at Oyster Bay next Friday for a conference regarding peace negotiations.

The Japanese are expected to reach New York about the last of July. Baron Komura will be accompanied by Col. Tachibana, the newly appointed military attaché at Washington, who will be one of the advisors of mission; Mr. Adacho, first secretary of the legation, untached, served with Takahira while the latter was minister at Rome; Sato, of the foreign office, who accompanied Prince Fushimi to this country last year; an American lawyer who has been legal advisor to the foreign office for 25 years; Yamao, chief of the Japanese political bureau, and two private secretaries.

The Japanese mission will be supplemented at Portsmouth by Takahira, the other plenipotentiary, Commander Takahira, the Japanese naval attaché at Washington; Hanihara, the secretary of the legation here. Throughout the conference the Japanese legation will remain at Washington with Mr. Hickl, first secretary, in charge. The legation will keep in close touch with the plenipotentiaries and through its proximity to the state department will render material assistance.

Nothing more is heard here of China's request to be represented at the conference. This action on the part of China has by no means pleased Japan and the latter's objection to the suggestion was fully expected by the Washington government. Whether the president has communicated with China on the subject cannot be learned here. In diplomatic quarters sympathetic to Japan it is declared that China's request was made at the instance of Russia but this statement lacks official confirmation.

BOB BROWN

THE POPULAR LOUISVILLE MAN, IS NOW EXALTED RULER.

Convention.

Buffalo, N. Y., July 12.—The following grand lodge officers were elected by the Elks today:

Grand Exalted Ruler—Robert W. Brown, Louisville, Ky.
Leading Knight—C. F. Tomlinson, Winston, N. C.
Loyal Knight—Charles Kaufman, Hoboken, N. Y.

The only contest worthy of note was that for the office of short term trustee, Cal. L. Kingsley, Waterloo, Ia., and Mayor Charles C. Schmidt, Wheeling, W. Va., opposed Dr. Haviland, of Butte, Mont., the latter finally winning.

The report of the board of governors recommending the abandonment of Elks' home at Before City, Va., was turned over to the grand trustees. The report of the grand trustees on the same subject recommended the turning of the control of the home over to the governors.

BATTLESHIP AFLOAT.

Was Sunk by the Mutineers Last Week.

Kustentzi, July 12.—The battleship Potemkin, which was sunk by the mutineers who surrendered, was refloated this morning.

ROB RURAL CARRIER.

First Case of Its Kind Comes From the Wickliffe-Blandville Route.

Wickliffe, Ky., July 12.—Rolla Blankenship, mail carrier on route No. 2, known as the Wickliffe-Blandville route, reports that he was held up and robbed by highwaymen. Blankenship had gone to Blandville and was returning home. He was driving leisurely along the highway, when a man sprang up alongside of the road and ordered Blankenship to throw up his hands. As he was complying with the request two more of the gang came up on the opposite side of the road and ordered him to get out of the buggy and to be quick about it. They then relieved him of about thirty dollars in money, a fine gold watch, several dollars' worth of stamps and minor articles. The men then ordered Blankenship to get in his buggy and go on about his business. Federal authorities have been notified, and a diligent search is being made for them.

Another account in the Cairo Bulletin says Blankenship is carrier on route number two going out from Paducah, but this is an error. The Bulletin says:

Rollie L. Blankenship, mail carrier on R. F. D. No. 2, in McCracken county, Kentucky, was held up and robbed by three masked men, near Ohio school house, about eight miles east of Wickliffe and two miles north of Blandville, yesterday about noon.

Blankenship says they got $27.50 of his individual money and $1.08 of government money, and a K. of P. ring that he wore on his finger valued at about $9. The robbers went through his mail and selected such letters as they desired.

There were no registered letters, but the total loss is estimated at about $40. The robbers were disguised by smutting their faces but wore no masks. They were standing by the side of the road and stepped out as the lone driver approached and ordered "hands up."

One of the men stood with two revolvers leveled at Mr. Blankenship while the other two searched him, afterward going through the mail box and making their selection. They then lowered his buggy top and ordered him to drive on, the man with the two revolvers turning as he drove by and keeping the muzzles leveled at him.

There is yet no clue to their identity, though all the neighboring towns were notified to look out for them.

INSURANCE COMPANIES.

Two Quit Nashville Owing to Fires.

Nashville, Tenn., July 12.—Two English fire insurance companies have notified their local agents not to write any more business in Nashville, and two other Britishers who were contemplating the establishment of agencies throughout Tennessee and Kentucky have abandoned their plans along this line and will not come to this section of the United States at present.

These are the first outward results of the recent heavy fire losses in this city so far as the fire insurance companies are concerned.

The two companies which have announced their intention not to write any more business in this section are the Royal Exchange of London, England, represented in Nashville by Mr. James E. Caldwell, and the Norwich Union of Norwich, England, represented here by Charles T. Cole & Co.

THRONE OF NORWAY

Offered to King Ed's Son-in-Law,
Prince Charles, of Denmark.

London, July 12.—The Associated Press is in a position to confirm the report that an offer of the Norwegian throne has been made to King Edward's son-in-law, Prince Charles of Denmark. The matter is still under consideration. It is understood that King Edward and the British government are favorable to the project, but much depends upon King Oscar's attitude on the subject. Consultations are now going on.

Prince Charles' mother was a daughter of the late King of Sweden.

KIDNAP GOVERNOR'S SON.

Convicts Plan to Abduct Son of Governor of New Mexico.

Santa Fe, July 12.—A plot to abduct the son of Governor Otero has been exposed. Eight convicts are implicated in the scheme.

Lawson said today that he would soon take the first step against the insurance companies in the form of a lawsuit to be begun by five thousand policy holders of the New York Life, the Equitable and Mutual Life insurance companies, and against thousands of officers and directors for restitution of millions of dollars illegally received by the companies in the shape of commissions and perquisites.

The Raylets, who pierced the Hoosier armor and melted the pennant chances of the Kolbits, turned the trick on the Indians yesterday and carried off the honors at Wallace park by a score of 1 to 0. It was ladies' day and there was a large crowd out to see the game. Brahic was in the box for the Indians and Beeker for the Raylets, and it was a pitcher's battle in every sense of the word.

The failure of the Indians to take the game lies in the power of Beeker's delivery. He pitched admirable ball and earned the game he won. Brahic also pitched well, even doing better than Beeker in several respects, but the Indians, with three men on bases and no one out, and with one or two men on the sacks and one and two out, got nervous and popped "em" up in the infield for the Raylets to gobble up.

The run scored by the Raylets was earned. It was made in the second inning and so quickly that the Indians are still rubbing their eyes. McGill stung the sphere for two sacks to right field fence, and Bell sacrificed him to third. Downing singled to center field and the score tallied. Wagner made safe on Perry's fumble and the next two were put out in order.

Mud Wallows Take Two.

Cairo, Ill., July 12.—The Kolbits are still doing the toboggan act and are hitting the slide pretty hard. The Mud Wallows took two yesterday and it is said the games were no "laid down affairs," either. "Count" Bonno pitched both games and it was not a duplicate of last year when he was with the Indians, by any means. The new bunch of Mud Wallows seem to be on to the "Count's" curves, and gave it to him strong and right from the shoulder yesterday.

Lunatics Win Out.

Hopkinsville, Ky., July 12.—Yesterday's game was a slugfest in which the Hens proved to be the fastest hitters. Asher and Cleg for Henderson, Simpson and Rutledge for Hopkinsville, were the batteries. The Hens hit the hardest but the Lunatics were successful in bunching hits and won out.

Johnnie Ray is smiling today.

Beeker, the man with the slow wing, played fast ball yesterday.

It is said that when the visitors forge one run ahead, the Indians lose heart.

Land got two singles yesterday.

Eckstone gave the Indians a raw deal in one or two decisions.

Double header today.

Ladies' day again Friday.

Wiley Platt says he will pitch both games this afternoon. Platt pitched Sunday and seemed to be a little out of form, but today is feeling well and is in fine condition.

Perry played good ball. He made a double play unassisted, catching a liner one-handed.

The Indians would have made four double plays yesterday, but for an error on the part of Taylor.

Captain Eddie Gilligan is active manager in the absence of Manager Lloyd, who has gone to Cincinnati to attend the funeral of his mother-in-law.

Rosson and Akers will be the pitchers to work for Princeton today.

Charlie Dexter, formerly manager of the Louisville baseball team, who recently resigned, has signed with the St. Joseph's of the Western league. Dexter is well known in Paducah. He played with Evansville in '97, when Paducah was in the Central league.

"Billy" Sudhoff, who was with the Paducah boys in the Central league in '97, and with Dowling, shared the affections of the rooters of that year, is evidently deteriorating. He went to the St. Louis Nationals from here and played winning ball with that team and then the St. Louis Americans, last year winning a pitcher's battle with the "only" Cy Young, of the Boston champion world beaters. Yesterday's dispatches bring the news that he has been traded to Indianapolis.

Theodore Decker, a Paducah boy who has been playing amateur ball, has been secured to play right field for the Indians in the absence of Lloyd. Decker is fast and a good hitter and the team will be strengthened by securing him.

It was indirectly stated this morning that the management intended to have Lloyd pitch one out of every four games played and to secure a fast fielder for the right field. Lloyd's arm is in excellent condition and it is stated the management will make this change when Lloyd returns.

There is a great deal of dissatisfaction among the fans about the right garden. It is said that Lloyd plays the field because he has to, it being no choice of his. The management and not Lloyd is to blame and the roasting received at the hands of several fans yesterday was very discouraging and not at all deserved by Lloyd. If there is any roasting to be done because of Lloyd playing the field, the management and not Lloyd should be blamed.

Bittoriff, the "spit ball" pitcher of the Egyptians, is forging ahead and will give pitchers in the Kitty league a hard run for first place in the pitching averages. Bittoriff has proved a stumbling block to the Indians and he is also tripping up other teams in the league.

Lajoie, the great manager of the Cleveland American League team, which has been giving the Chicagoos the most spectacular pennant fight in years, may never play ball again. For the third time the famous ball player has gone under the knife and reports from his bedside are anything but encouraging.

At the earliest Lajoie will not be able to get back in the game for a month. This is in case everything goes smoothly and the mend is steady.

It is feared, however, that he will not be seen in the diamond again this year.

A pint of pus was removed from the injured ankle when the third operation was performed. Lajoie was in a high fever at the time.

Lajoie is one of the greatest ball-players who ever appeared on a diamond and has thousands of admirers in every part of the country. This year he was made manager of the Cleveland team, and has proven himself to be possessed of as great executive as playing ability. His enforced absence from the game at this time may cost the Cleveland team the pennant, for which they have been fighting Chicago spiritedly for several weeks.

Batting averages for the American and National leagues for the first two months of the season show Cy Seymour, of Cincinnati, to be leading the latter, with .254. Hans Wagner is second with .346, Christy Mathewson, New York's premier slaban, is hitting at a sensational clip, standing fourth among the heavy hitters, with .333. Iron Man McGinnity is not far away with .310. There are 15 men hitting over .300. In the American league McFarland, of Chicago, leads with .339, followed by Schreck of Philadelphia, with .328. Willie Keeler is third with .327, "Wayhoo" Sam Crawford fourth with .324. Napoleon Lajoie, the king of sluggers, has not yet struck his gait, ranking seventh with a bare .302. There are only nine men in the 300 class in the American, which shows that the National is outshining the American. Maloney, of Chicago, is leading the National baserunners, with 30 stolen bases in 52 games, while Hartzel of Philadelphia, leads the American, with 23 in 48 games.

Nine Managers Who Play.

There are nine playing managers and seven plain captains in the two big leagues. Five of the playing managers are in the American and four in the National.

Here is a list of the playing managers in the two big leagues and the positions they play:

American League:—Fielder Jones, White Sox, center field; Lajoie, Cleveland, second base; Stahl, Washington, first base; Griffith, New York, pitcher; Collins, Boston, third base.
 National League:—Burke, St. Louis, first base; Kelley, Cincinnati, left field; Clarke, Pittsburgh, left field; Tenney, Boston, first base.

Those who are just plain everyday captains, working under bench managers, are:

American League:—Coughlin, Detroit, third base; Wallace, St. Louis, short-stop; Lave Cross, Philadelphia, third base.

National League:—Chance, Chicago, first base. McGann, New York, first base; Gleason, Philadelphia, second base; Sheekard, Brooklyn, left field.

Jones, Clarke, Kelley and Sheekard are the only regular outfielders who hold positions as managers or field captains.

Mrs. Fred Dumm, Who Fell Unconscious When She Heard of Husband's Death is Recovering.

Mrs. Fred Dumm, wife of the man who met such a horrible death at the O. L. Bartlett factory in Mount City Monday afternoon, was reported to be improving last night. She fell in a dead faint when she learned of her husband's tragic death and did not regain consciousness until early this morning.

The funeral will probably be held today. The deceased was not a member of the Knights of Pythias as was stated yesterday.

Mrs. Dumm has long been a sufferer from consumption and her physicians say that at the best she cannot long survive.

HOUSE BREAKERS IN THE WEST END

Enter Residence of Charles Warren 2226 Broadway.

They Rife His Trousers of $19 in Cash, But Leave His Watch Behind.

TRY A RESIDENCE NEXT DOOR.

The residence of Mr. Charles D. Warren, the paint contractor who resides at 2226 Broadway, was burglarized last night and $19 in cash taken. The thieves entered through a side window, but this was unnecessary, all doors to the house being unlocked, making it possible to enter by ordinary means.

Mr. Warren and family retired early and Mr. Warren left his trousers hanging on a chair near his bed. He had $19 in cash in a small leather tobacco pouch and his watch in a pocket. The thieves took the garment and after taking the money threw the trousers into the yard leaving the watch with the garment. A door leading out of the house was found propped back with a broom, the burglars having taken every precaution to escape, if detected.

It was later found that the thieves also stole Mr. Edgar Warren's trousers, but secured nothing. His trousers were thrown in the yard after having been gone through.

After leaving the Warren residence the burglars are thought to have attempted to enter the Leroy residence next door, but failed on account of the windows being locked.

Thieves have been operating in this section of the city for several months and the police have orders to keep a close watch to prevent a repetition of the affair.

SICK CHILD.

Chas. Everidge Charters Train to Take It to Memphis.

Mr. J. W. Orr, the grocer, received a telegram yesterday saying that Mr. Charlie Everidge, a former resident of the city, now of Terrell, Ark., chartered a train to take his little son to Memphis to be treated for congestion.

The child was taken ill suddenly in the morning, and the father desiring to have expert medical attention and no trains leaving before late in the afternoon, secured a special train and took his son to Memphis, a distance of 29 miles. The run was made in 29 minutes.

Mr. Everidge was formerly in the saloon business in Paducah, but has been residing in Arkansas for several years.

"Laugh and Grow Fat."

Life is such a serious business with the average mortal that an opportunity for a hearty laugh is more than welcome to most people. "A merry heart doeth good like a medicine" and so do the humorous features of that great metropolitan daily, The Chicago Record-Herald. The first thing that greets you on the first page of every issue is the humorous cartoon by Ralph Wilder, the well known artist, that frequently tells more at a glance than could be conceived of in a column of reading matter. Every issue contains also a humorous small story on the editorial page, and the "Alternating Currents" column, written by S. E. Kiser, one of the most popular humorists in the country. In addition to all these, the Sunday issue always includes a comic section, guaranteed to produce laughter.

BANK ASSESSMENT

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS AND BANK OFFICIALS COME TO AN AGREEMENT.

The Three National Banks Will Pay $3,107.07 More Taxes to the City Than Last Year.

The assessments of the Paducah national banks were made yesterday and the total valuation fixed at $171,950. An agreement was reached yesterday by representatives of the banks and the board of city tax book supervisors.

The assessment of national banks on personal property was not made at the usual time on account of the failure of the commonwealth to make an assessment, the banks asking that the assessment on personal property be left open until the state acted. The state having done so, the supervisors were called in session and fixed the assessment. It required all day yesterday to complete the work.

The assessments and comparisons with last year are as follows:

City National bank, $188,130 last year; this year, $247,680.

American-German National bank, last year $160,000; this year $240,000.

First National bank, last year, $150,000; this year, $182,400.

The assessment will be reported to the legislative boards for ratification.

By this agreement the banks will pay into the city treasury $3,107.07 more taxes than last year.

FORGED CHECK

MAYFIELD BANK IS THE VICTIM OF A SWINDLE.

The Check Had Forged Endorsement Of Rev. J. H. Roberts, of This City, Attached to It.

About two weeks ago a man of middle age and of apparently gentlemanly bearing came into the First National bank of Mayfield. He told Major Hale, president of the bank, that he was a Methodist minister and had come to hold a protracted meeting for Rev. Moody at Blalock's chapel Mayfield. He had a check with him for fifty dollars, which he wanted cashed. The major told him that he did not doubt but what he was all he told him and that the check was good, but according to bank rules he would have to be identified. The man then said that he had the check endorsed by Rev. J. H. Roberts, of Paducah, presiding elder of the Methodist church. He said that he had met Rev. Roberts on his way to the country and asked him to go to the bank and identify him, but that Rev. Roberts had told him he was in a hurry and would endorse the check. The name was signed there on the back of the check and as it very much resembled the signature of Rev. Roberts, Major Hale handed him over the fifty dollars.

Recently the check came back to the First National, as it was protested at the bank upon which it was drawn. The president, who wrote a letter within the returned check, said that it was a forgery and such a person was not known.

Rev. Moody said that the man was an impostor and he knew nothing of him. Rev. Roberts was telephoned and in reply said that he had not endorsed the check.

The man has not been heard from, but every effort will be made to catch him.

NO REASON FOR IT.

When Paducah Citizens Show the Way.

There can be no just reason why any reader of this will continue to suffer the tortures of an aching back, the annoyances of urinary disorders, the dangers of diabetes or any kidney ills when they can be cured. Read what a Paducah citizen says:

W. W. Morris, residing at 902 Bronson street, a school teacher, well known in Paducah, says: "One of the members of my family has been troubled with kidney disease for some time. A good number of would-be cures were tried but they did not permanently relieve the trouble. We noticed an advertisement about Doan's Kidney Pills and sent to DuBois, Kolb & Co.'s drug store and got a box. The pills were used and found to do all that is claimed for them, and we can endorse this remedy to anyone who is a sufferer from kidney trouble for we have great confidence in its merits."

KY. SECURITIES

INSURANCE COMPANIES OF THE STATE SHOULD INVEST IN THEM.

So Declares Commissioner of Insurance Henry R. Prewitt in His Last Report.

Frankfort, Ky., July 12.—The "life" volume of the thirty-fifth annual report of the state insurance department has been compiled by Commissioner Henry R. Prewitt and will shortly be issued. In this volume are to be found abstracts of statements of all insurance companies other than fire and fire marine which have authority to do business in Kentucky.

Commissioner Prewitt has for some time past been devoting himself to a study of the insurance laws of Kentucky and to changes which he deems imperative in those laws, and gives some space to suggestions as to them. He urges a change in Sec. 652 of statutes so that it shall include all companies wherein the policyholder participates in the surplus, making it compulsory upon the company to distribute a certain per cent. of its surplus funds each year.

Farther along the commissioner says that one of the greatest evils in insurance is the right to control its investments. He suggests as a remedy that the companies be required to invest a certain per cent. of the net earnings in Kentucky securities, as such investments would make the policies of the people of the state more secure. Another chapter of the report is devoted to the high salaries paid the executive officers of the different companies and to recommending that no company be admitted to business in Kentucky which pays an executive officer exceeding $50,000 per year.

Daily Thought.

"It is by being a whole man to one thing at a time that much may be accomplished."

THE RURAL ROUTES.

The growth of the rural routes throughout the country has been wonderful and to this is due the great, big deficit the postal department showed the first of July. Before the establishment of the rural routes the postal department was very near to a paying basis, but each year, with the added expense incident to the establishment and operation of the routes the deficit has grown more and more. Last year it was near the $25,000,000 mark. The government is running away behind on receipts and there has been much discussion of the advisability of curtailing the rural routes, but the farmers will protest against such a step, and the tax payers would welcome a stamp tax form of tax in preference to any such curtailment. The rural routes are recognized as one of the greatest factors in the growth of the rural districts and the education of the people, and as a convenience,—one might say a luxury,—they rank high. The newspapers and merchants appreciate the routes at their true value, and would also deplore anything that tends to in any way curtail to any extent their operation, or the establishment of more.

The First Congressional district of Kentucky has been fortunate in securing a great number of these routes, as will be seen by an item in the news columns of today's Sun. Congressman Ollie James comes in for a big share of the credit for them. He is working hard for more and certainly is deserving of the gratitude of his constituents.

CALEB POWERS' CASE.

From all over the country come comments on the Powers case and the recent decision of Judge Cochran. The following from the Commercial Appeal is a fair sample of what most of the newspapers have to say:

"Powers was tried three times and in every case the jury was packed with his political enemies. Care was especially taken that no Republicans should be placed on the jury. At that time political passion ran high, and it permeated the case. Powers had to submit to a trial before his political enemies and he was convicted; but even a Democratic supreme court hesitated to affirm the sentence of death against him, and reversed the case. The federal court has wisely decided that he could not get an impartial trial in the state courts. It is to be hoped that now the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth will be brought out. If it can be shown that Caleb Powers planned the assassination of William Goebel, the extreme penalty of the law should be meted out to him. But if no more proof can be adduced against him than has been adduced heretofore, he should be acquitted and a great wrong should be righted."

It is easy enough to tell a man to take a vacation and show him how, but it isn't easy to raise the necessary motive power—the money.

Tom Lawson has lost his voice. "The System" no doubt wishes he would get writer's cramps now.

Editor Brownlow knows, now, a brick wall, even though he did not see the handwriting upon it.

No wonder the agricultural department is leaking—the heavens are doing the same stunt.

Cairo is to have a bomb factory. Wouldn't that jar you?

King Cotton is again in the lime light.

LOCAL SHIP CARPENTERS

Simply Following Provisions of Their Constitution.

A prominent member of the ship carpenters' union stated this morning that the ship carpenters' union's constitution recognized spinning oakum as a part of the caulkers' trade, and that the carpenters, when they refused to work unless the caulkers were permitted to spin oakum, were not acting in sympathy with the caulkers, but simply following out the provisions of the constitution.

It is stated that on the Great Lakes the caulkers all spin oakum, but that it is a hard matter to bring the proprietors around on the Ohio and Mississippi rivers.

MUST PAY TAXES.

Non-Residents in Kentucky Are Subject to Taxation.

Lexington, Ky., July 12.—In the circuit court here today Judge Watts Parker decided that the city has the right to collect taxes on property owned by non-residents of the city, and as a result Back Tax Collector Hardesty is empowered to collect taxes from the Security Trust and Safety Vault company as trustee for Fannie C. Kemp, of New York, and Kate L. Forsythe, of Chicago. The trust company holds that as the two women are non-residents of the city and state their property is taxable only at the place of residence but Judge Parker holds that the property of non-residents of the state is taxable where the property is held in trust.

Back Tax Suits.

Henderson, July 12.—George H. Alexander of Louisville, revenue agent for the state at large, has jumped the trail of a new lot of delinquent taxpayers in Henderson county. Monday he filed with County Court Clerk Powell sixteen statements showing where that many firms, incorporations or individuals had omitted from the schedules property on which taxes were due in the sum of $250,000.

Lexington Too.

Lexington, July 12.—The back tax drag net set by George H. Alexander, state revenue agent, was hauled in again Monday and the catch was taken to the court house and filed with the county clerk as an exhibit. The Alexander drag net does not discriminate in matters of race or nationality. Monday's catch included Jews and Gentiles, Caucasians and a negro.

BRISTOW REPORTS ON PANAMA WORK

Discusses Policy Government Should Pursue.

Mr. Bristow Spent Several Months in His Investigation Which Was Thorough.

TRAFFIC CONNECTION FAVORED

Washington, July 12.—The report of Joseph L. Bristow, who was appointed a special commissioner to investigate trade conditions and other matters concern the Panama Railroad and Steamship company, was made public today. The report discusses from several points of view the question of what policy should be pursued by the government in the management of the railroad and makes a number of important recommendations.

Among these are the continuance of the railroad as a commercial line, with improved facilities for handling commerce, including double-tracking and re-equipping the line with modern rolling stock, the enlargement of its port facilities, the retention of the steamship line between New York and Colon, the cancellation of the contracts with the Pacific Mail Steamship company and the South American lines and the opening of the ports of Colon and Panama to all steamship lines on equal terms; and in certain contingencies the establishment by the railroad of steamship lines between Colon and Gulf ports and Panama and important United States Pacific coast ports. It is also recommended that in traffic connections American steamship lines be favored as far as consistent with the treaty obligations of the United States.

Mr. Bristow spent several months in his investigation, visiting the Isthmus of Panama, important ports on the western coast of Central America, the Isthmus of Tehuantepec and the Pacific coast of the United States. His report reviews the entire history of the railroad and discusses allegations that its local freight and passenger service charges were excessive and its traffic contracts with steamship lines monopolistic.

CROP CONDITION

REPORT FOR JUNE ISSUED BY NATIONAL GOVERNMENT.

Acres of Corn Heavier Than Last Year and Wheat Conditions Excellent.

Washington, July 12.—The monthly report of the department of agriculture shows the acreage of corn planted at 94,011,000 acres, an increase of 2,090,000 acres or 2.3 per cent over last year. Conditions of the crop July 1, 87.3, compared with 88.4 a year ago. Ten year average, 87.6.

Condition of winter wheat, July 1, 82.7, compared with 78.1 in 1904. Ten year average, 77.8.

Condition of spring wheat July 1, 91.0, compared with 93.7 last year. Ten year average, 89.3.

Amount of wheat in the hands of farmers July 1, 240,275 bushels, equivalent to about 4.4 per cent of the crop last year. Condition of oats July 1, 92.1, compared with 98.8 last year. Ten year average, 88.5.

Acreage of potatoes, excluding sweet potatoes, is less than that of last year by about 19,000 acres, or 6 per cent. Condition of July 1, 91.2, compared with 93.9 a year ago; ten year average, 92.1.

The acreage of tobacco is less than that of last year by about 54,000 acres, or 6.7 per cent. Condition July 1, 87.4, against 85.5 a year ago.

Fulton Crops.

Fulton Ky., July 12.—The farmers in this section of the state are very gloomy over the outlook for crops. It has rained here every day for the past three weeks and crops are damaged nearly 50 per cent. The wheat crop is almost a total loss and the damage to corn and other farm products is heavy.

TOBACCO REPORTS TAMPERED WITH

Tobacco Trust Thus Charged at Washington.

Growers and Planters From Burley and Dark Tobacco Counties Are Solicited for Information.

FAULT WITH THE JUNE REPORT

Washington, D. C., July 12.—Secretary Wilson said today that the charges that the department reports on the condition of the tobacco crop for June were tampered with by the tobacco trust would be investigated with the utmost thoroughness. It is thought the department will hardly include the Clarksville and Hopkinsville district of the Regie or tobacco belt in the report for the month of July, as it is charged that the agents of the American Tobacco company made the report for the issue of the Crop Reporter for June, and it is to be presumed the agents of the trust are still in that section, ready to make reports for the government.

The specific allegations made today were that the tobacco estimates for June were founded on reports from agents of the tobacco trust. The Tobacco Growers' Association of Kentucky and Tennessee, the Dark Tobacco Growers' association of Tennessee, and the burley tobacco growers of Kentucky are all in correspondence with the secretary of agriculture over the matter. The principal complaint in connection with the June report comes from the "Clarksville and Hopkinsville" district of the "Regie of Dark Tobacco" district.

The official report of the department last month said: "Although in some sections planters are said to have organized to reduce acreage on account of low prices, yet for the district as a whole a substantial increase as indicated, the outlook now being for about 20 per cent."

The three tobacco associations declare that this 20 per cent estimate is grossly unfair, and that the acreage increase will not reach anywhere near that point. That the department is not at all certain that its figures are correct was practically admitted today.

WAYWARD BOY

Steals Money From His Parents, But is Released.

Louis Jefferson, a negro boy of about 15 years of age, was arrested at the I. C. passenger depot this morning by Officers Senger and Hill for petty larceny—the theft of $3.75 from his step-father, Charles Jefferson, who resides at Tenth and Boyd streets.

The boy retired last night, and after the other members of the family had gone to bed, slipped into his step-father's room and took the money from a wardrobe drawer. The theft was discovered this morning when the father got up, and the police were notified.

The boy attempted to leave the city, saying he wanted to go to St. Louis where his father resided, but the officers got to him first.

He was turned over to his step-father this morning at the hall, the latter refusing to take out a warrant and prosecute the boy.

FIRST KENTUCKY'S RURAL ROUTES

The Old Gibraltar is the Banner District.

Congressman Ollie James Deserves Most of the Credit for the Showing.

102 ROUTES IN THE DISTRICT

The First district of Kentucky is Kentucky's banner rural free delivery district. It is due, in great measure to Congressman Ollie James. His constituents have asked for more than those of any other district, and they have gotten it. To-day there are 102 routes in operation in the First district. There were 191 petitions for the establishment of routes sent to the department. Thirty-six of these petitions had to be turned down, and 53 of them yet remain to be investigated and passed upon. Last year at this time there were only three or four districts in the state which had less routes than did the first. It had 31 to its credit then, as against 102 now. No district in the state, and few in the United States, show such relative gains in the number of routes established as does the First.

Two hundred and forty rural free delivery routes were established in Kentucky during the year which ended July 1. There are 174 petitions still pending. It is interesting to note that although Kentucky ranks twelfth among the states, she comes in about twentieth among the states in the number of rural free delivery routes. But this is probably due to the fact that Kentuckians have not asked for as many routes, proportionately as, have some of the other states. In all, there have been filed with the postoffice department petitions for the establishment of 992 routes. Of these petitions 254 have been turned down by the department, routes have been established on 564 of them, and 174 yet remain to be investigated, and acted upon.

THE BIG TUNNELS

Playing Havoc in Some Parts of Chicago.

Chicago, Ill., July 12.—Starting conditions in the down-town district are revealed by the sudden settling of the ground under Chicago streets and buildings. The trouble is attributed by engineers of the traction companies to the construction of the Illinois Tunnel company conduits under the streets. The prophecy of a catastrophe was made at the office of Chief Engineer H. B. Fleming, of the Chicago City Railway company, with the announcement that the highway at Jackson boulevard and High street had sunken ten inches in two nights.

Engineers for the Union Loop company have known for a year that the earth between the tunnel and the street was giving way in many spots, and as a result it has been necessary to jack up the structures in several places. Depressions have appeared in ten different places in the last few months, which threatened skyscrapers and other buildings on floating foundations.

"There is going to be an awful bluish if something is not done to stop this tunnel work," is the warning from the traction engineer's office.

It takes a lot of salve to turn a human crank.

KING LEOPOLD
AS PROMOTER

Said to be Interested in Great Railroad Scheme.

Plan is to Run a Railroad From Norfolk, Virginia, to San Francisco, California.

IT WOULD TOUCH KENTUCKY.

Washington D. C., July 12.—It is stated, on what appears to be good authority, that King Leopold, of Belgium, is behind a project to build a trans-continental railroad from Norfolk, Va., to San Francisco, or some other point on the California coast. It is said that the J. Addison Gaylord company, one of the strongest financial houses in Wall street, is the financial representative of Leopold in the enterprise. The report might be treated as the financial imagination of some visionary brain had not L. H. Mershen, president of the J. Addison Gaylord company, come out in a statement in which he says that the publication of the story is "premature." If he had said that there was nothing in the report, or had he ignored it entirely, it would not have attracted any attention. But he is careful not to deny that there is something in it, but simply writes that it is "premature," thus leaving the impression that there is at least some foundation for the press notices relative to it.

King Leopold, of Belgium, is said to be one of the richest men in the world. Though king of one of the smallest countries, he is reported to be a modern Midas. But be that as it may, he is known to have put good money into a great many enterprises on this side of the water, as well as some in other parts of the world. He is reputed to have made millions out of the diamond mines of South Africa. In 1876 he organized the African International Association, the aim of which was to utilize African discoveries. As Isabella made possible the discovery of America by Columbus, so Leopold made possible the explorations of Africa by Henry M. Stanley. In consideration of these things, he was given sovereignty over the Congo State by the Berlin Conference of 1885. American railroad enterprises are said to represent the bulk of his holdings in America.

If the road should be built it will likely follow as nearly an air line as practicable from Norfolk to St. Louis, and thence west to the Pacific coast. Such an air line would make it cross Virginia on a route almost or quite identical with that of the Tidewater railroad, which is now under contract, and, passing through the lower part of West Virginia, it would cross the Kentucky line somewhere on the Pike county boundary.

A bee line from there to St. Louis would make it pass through Louisville and Frankfort.

The fact that the road would parallel the projected Tidewater road might indicate that that enterprise will prove to be only a part of the gigantic scheme of building a trans-continental line, as was indicated in these dispatches recently.

CAPTAIN WOOD
IS EXONERATED

Board of Police Commissioners
Tried Case Tuesday Night.

Evidence of All the Witnesses Heard
And Verdict is Unanimous For Acquittal.

A REVIEW OF THE CASE AS IT IS.

The board of fire and police commissioners met last night in special session at the city hall for the purpose of hearing charges preferred by Editor Louis Brownlow of the News-Democrat, against Captain Joe Wood, of the Paducah police force. The newspaper man claimed that Captain Wood was guilty of conduct unbecoming an officer, and after hearing all evidence in the case, the commissioners exonerated Captain Wood by a unanimous vote.

It will be remembered that on the night of July 1st, Detectives Moore and Baker arrested Henry Vaughan, colored, for larceny, and the negro was locked up, pending an investigation. Editor Brownlow sent his reporters to the city hall to secure information and Captain Wood claimed he was unable to give it. Editor Brownlow sent his reporter back twice after that and then came in person, after Captain Wood had refused to talk to him over the telephone.

Captain Wood was charged with forcibly ejecting Editor Brownlow from his office when he called at the city hall in person, and also of having kicked Mr. Brownlow as he left the office. The evidence in the case failed to substantiate any of the charges and Captain Wood was fully exonerated.

The witnesses in case were Capt. Wood, Editor Brownlow, Patrolman William Rogers, Clark Bondurant, of the News-Democrat and James E. Wilhelm, of the Register Co.

THEATRICAL NOTES.

Workmen at The Kentucky, which is undergoing a thorough overhauling and cleaning, have several weeks work ahead of them yet. It has not been definitely decided yet whether the house is to be painted, but as the new management wants the play house to look as attractive as possible, it is thought it will be.

Maudie Adams is alternating the weeks of her summer between her country place at Ronkonoma, L. I., and her mountain home in the Catskills.

John Drew did not close his season until nearly the first of July, having continued his tour to California. He is now at his country place on Long Island.

E. H. Sothorn is taking but a short vacation, as he begins preliminary rehearsals shortly of Shakespearean repertoire, in which he and Miss Marlowe will appear next season. Miss Marlowe is now abroad.

Having seen all that is new in the dramatic line in London and Paris, Ethel Barrymore is resting at one of the German watering places.

William H. Crane is abroad. William Gillette is finishing a new play in London and on his return will take a cruise on his house boat the Aunt Polly.

Edna May has just returned from London, where she has been preparing for her forthcoming appearance in "The Catch of the Season," at Daly's New York, in September. While abroad she secured her gowns in Paris, and spent a fortnight in Switzerland. Miss May will rest on Lake Ontario until rehearsals begin.

Virginia Harned is at her home in New Jersey. Annie Russell is abroad and Fay Davis is in Maine.

Joseph Coyne and some eighty others are spending their vacations at the Herald Square, New York, playing in "The Rollicking Girl," and breaking all records for summer money receipts known to Broadway.

William Collier triumphed so signally in London that he will play "The Dictator" all summer at the Comedy Theater.

Francis Wilson is summing in the sea and making trips to the Adirondacks, where he is completing a magnificent residence.

Nat C. Goodwin is spending the month of July on a ranch in California.

THE ENGLISH ARMY

Has Been Declared Unfit by Lord Roberts.

London, July 11.—Field Marshal Lord Roberts created a sensation in the house of lords this evening when in a lengthy and well considered speech he deliberately expressed the opinion as a practical soldier that the military force of Great Britain was inadequate, imperfectly trained and totally unfit to uphold Great Britain as a first-class power.

Roberts did not blame the government, which he said, was actuated by the national feeling, but he scathingly attacked the people of England, who, he said, did not show national feeling towards the military until danger arose.

Roberts said the lesson of the South African war had been forgotten. He had no hesitation in saying that the armed forces of Great Britain as a body were now as absolutely unfit and unprepared for war as they were when the South African trouble broke out.

He declared emphatically that the choice lay between conscription or some practical system of universal training; that only by such means would it be possible for Great Britain to possess armed forces organized and trained to meet the demands of the empire in the event of war.

GETS DALRYMPLE REPORT.

Mayor Dunne, However, Will Not Make the Document Public at Present.

Chicago, July 11.—James Dalrymple's report on the traction situation in Chicago and the outlook for municipal ownership was received today by Mayor Dunne. The city executive declined to discuss the document further than to declare he would not make it public, at least for the present.

There was much speculation about the city hall as to the contents of the missive, although it was generally regarded as an accepted fact that the Scotch expert looks with little favor upon municipal ownership of street railways in Chicago.

"I have received a communication from Mr. Dalrymple, but I would not call it a report," the mayor said. "I have nothing to say about it just now and do not care to discuss it."

The Return of SHERLOCK HOLMES

The Adventure of the Solitary Cyclist

No. 4 of the Series

"This way! This way! They are in the bowling alley!" cried the stranger, darting through the bushes. "Ah, the cowardly dogs! Follow me, gentlemen! Too late, too late, by the living jingo!"

We had broken suddenly into a lovely glade of greenward surrounded by ancient trees. On the farther side of it, under the shadow of a mighty oak, there stood a singular group of three people. One was a woman, our client, drooping and faint, a handkerchief round her mouth. Opposite her stood a brutal, heavy faced, red mustached young man, his gaitered legs parted wide, one arm akimbo, the other waving a riding crop, his whole attitude suggestive of triumphant bravado. Between them an elderly, gray bearded man, wearing a short surplice over a light tweed suit, had evidently just completed the wedding service, for he pocketed his prayer book as we appeared and slapped the jovial bridegroom upon the back in jovial congratulation.

"They're married!" I gasped.

"Come on!" cried our guide. "Come on!" He rushed across the glade, Holmes and I at his heels. As we approached the lady staggered against the trunk of the tree for support. Williamson, the ex-clergyman, bowed to us with mock politeness, and the bully, Woodley, advanced with a shout of brutal and exultant laughter.

"You can take your beard off, Bob," said he. "I know you right enough. Well, you and your pals have just come in time for me to be able to introduce you to Mrs. Woodley."

Our guide's answer was a singular one. He snatched off the dark beard which had disguised him and threw it on the ground, disclosing a long, shaven, clean shaven face below it. Then he raised his revolver and covered the young ruffian, who was advancing upon him with his dangerous riding crop swinging in his hand.

"Yes," said our ally, "I am Bob Carruthers, and I'll see this woman righted if I have to swing for it. I told you what I'd do if you molested her, and, by the Lord, I'll be as good as my word."

"You're too late. She's my wife."

"No, she's your widow."

His revolver cracked, and I saw blood spurt from the front of Woodley's waistcoat. He spun round with a scream and fell upon his back, his hideous red face turning suddenly to a dreadful mottled pallor. The old man, still clad in his surplice, burst into such a string of foul oaths as I have never heard and pulled out a revolver of his own, but before he could raise it he was looking down the barrel of Holmes' weapon.

"Enough of this!" said my friend coldly. "Drop that pistol! Watson, pick it up! Hold it to his head! Thank you, Carruthers, give me that revolver. We'll have no more violence. Come, hand it over!"

"Who are you, then?"

"My name is Sherlock Holmes."

"Good Lord!"

"You have heard of me, I see. I will represent the official police until their arrival. Here, you!" he shouted to a frightened groom who had appeared at the edge of the glade. "Come here. Take this note as hard as you can ride to Farnham." He scribbled a few words upon a leaf from his notebook. "Give it to the superintendent at the police station. Until he comes I must detain you all under my personal custody."

The strong, masterful personality of Holmes dominated the tragic scene, and all were equally puppets in his hands. Williamson and Carruthers found themselves carrying the wounded Woodley into the house, and I gave my arm to the frightened girl. The injured man was laid on his bed, and Holmes' request I examined him, and I carried my report to where he sat in the old tapestry hung dining room with his two prisoners before him.

"He will live," said I.

"What?" cried Carruthers, springing out of his chair. "I'll go upstairs and finish him first. Do you tell me that that girl, that angel, is to be tied to Roaring Jack Woodley for life?"

"You need not concern yourself about that," said Holmes. "There are two very good reasons why she should under no circumstances be his wife. In the first place, we are very safe in questioning Mr. Williamson's right to solemnize a marriage."

"I have been ordained," cried the old rascal.

"And also unfrocked."

"Once a clergyman, always a clergyman."

"I think not. How about the license?"

"We had a license for the marriage. I have it here in my pocket."

"Then you got it by a trick. But in any case a forced marriage is no marriage, but it is a very serious felony, as you will discover before you have finished. You'll have time to think the point out during the next ten years or so, unless I am mistaken. As to you, Carruthers, you would have done better to keep your pistol in your pocket."

"I begin to think so, Mr. Holmes, but when I thought of all the precaution I had taken to shield this girl for I loved her, Mr. Holmes, and it is the only time that ever I knew what love was—I fairly drove me mad, to think that she was in the power of the greatest brute and bully in South Africa—a man whose name is a holy terror from Kimberley to Johannesburg. Why, Mr. Holmes, you'll hardly believe it, but ever since that girl has been in my employment I never once let her go past this house, where I knew the rascals were lurking, without following her on my bicycle just to see that she came to no harm. I kept my distance from her, and I wore a beard so that she should not recognize me, for she is a good and high spirited girl, and she wouldn't have stayed in my employment long if she had thought that I was following her about the country roads."

"Why didn't you tell her of her danger?"

"Because then, again, she would have left me, and I couldn't bear to face that. Even if she couldn't love me it was a great deal to me just to see her gaily form about the house and to hear the sound of her voice."

"Well," said I, "you call that love, Mr. Carruthers, but I should call it selfishness."

"Maybe the two things go together. Anyhow, I couldn't let her go. Besides, with this crowd about it was well that she should have some one near to look after her. Then, when the cable came, I knew they were bound to make a move."

"What cable?"

"Carruthers took a telegram from his pocket."

"That's it," said he.

"It was short and concise:

"The old man is dead."

"Hum," said Holmes. "I think I see how things worked, and I can understand how this message would, as you say, bring them to a head. But while you wait you might tell me what you can."

The old reprobate with the surplice burst into a volley of bad language.

"By heaven," said he, "if you squeal on us, Bob Carruthers, I'll serve you as you served Jack Woodley! You can beat about the girl to your heart's content, for that's your own affair, but if you round on your pals to this plain clothes copper it will be the worst day's work that ever you did."

"Your reverence need not be excited," said Holmes, lighting a cigarette.

"The case is clear enough against you, and all I ask is a few details for my private curiosity. However, if there's any difficulty in your telling me I'll do the talking, and then you will see how far you have a chance of holding back your secrets. In the first place, three of you came from South Africa on this game—you, Williamson; you, Carruthers, and Woodley."

"Lie number one," said the old man. "I never saw either of them until two months ago, and I have never been in Africa in my life, so you can put that in your pipe and smoke it, Mr. Busy-body Holmes!"

"What he says is true," said Carruthers.

"Well, well, two of you came over. His reverence is our own homestead article. You had known Ralph Smith in South Africa. You had reason to believe he would not live long. You found out that his niece would inherit his fortune. How's that—eh?"

Carruthers nodded and Williamson swore.

"She was next of kin, no doubt, and you were aware that the old fellow would make no will."

"Couldn't read or write," said Carruthers.

"So you came over, the two of you, and hunted up the girl. The idea was that one of you was to marry her and the other have a share of the plunder. For some reason Woodley was chosen as the husband. Why was that?"

"We played cards for her on the voyage. He won."

"I see. You got the young lady into your service, and there Woodley was to do the courting. She recognized the drunken brute that he was and would have nothing to do with him. Meanwhile your arrangement was rather upset by the fact that you had yourself fallen in love with the lady. You could no longer bear the idea of this ruffian owning her?"

"No, by George, I couldn't."

There was a quarrel between you. He left you in a rage and began to make his own plans independently of you."

"It strikes me, Williamson, there isn't very much that we can tell this gentleman," cried Carruthers, with a bitter laugh. "Yes, we quarrelled, and he knocked me down. I am level with him on that, anyhow. Then I lost sight of him. That was when he picked up with this coast padre here. I found that they had set up housekeeping together at this place on the line that she had to pass for the station. I kept my eye on her after that, for I knew there was some devilry in the wind. I saw them from time to time, for I was anxious to know what they were after."

"Two days ago Woodley came up to my house with this cable, which showed that Ralph Smith was dead. He asked me if I would stand by the bargain. I said I would not. He asked me if I would marry the girl myself and give him a share. I said I would willingly do so, but that she would not have me. He said, 'Let us get her married first, and after a week or two she may see things a bit different.' I said I would have nothing to do with violence, so he went off cursing. Like the foul mouthed blackguard that he was, and swearing that he would have her yet. She was leaving me this week end, and I had got a trap to take her to the station, but I was so uneasy in my mind that I followed her on my bicycle. She had got a start, however, and before I could catch her the mischief was done. The first thing I knew about it was when I saw you two gentlemen driving back in her dogcart."

Holmes rose and tossed the end of his cigarette into the grate. "I have been very obtuse, Watson," said he. "When in your report you said that you had seen the cyclist, as you thought, arrange his necktie in the shrubbery that alone should have told me all. However, we may congratulate ourselves upon a curious and in some respects a unique case. I perceive three of the county constabulary in the drive, and I am glad to see that the little hostler is able to keep pace with them, so it is likely that neither he nor the interesting bridegroom will be permanently damaged by their morning's adventures. I think, Watson, that in your medical capacity you might wait upon Miss Smith and tell her that if she is sufficiently recovered we shall be happy to escort her to her mother's home. If she is not quite convalescent you will find that a hint that we were about to telegraph to a young electrician in the Midlands will probably complete the cure. As to you, Mr. Carruthers, I think that you have done what you could to make amends for your share in an evil plot. There is my card, sir, and if my evidence can be of help to you in your trial it shall be at your disposal."

In the whirl of our incessant activity it has often been difficult for me, as the reader has probably observed, to round off my narratives and to give those final details which the curious might expect. Each case has been the prelude to another, and the crisis once over the actors have passed forever out of our busy lives. I find, however, a short note at the end of my manuscript dealing with this case, in which I have put it upon record that Miss Violet Smith did indeed inherit a large fortune and that she is now the wife of Cyril Morton, the senior partner of Morton & Kennedy, the famous West-minster electricians. Williamson and Woodley were both tried for abduction and assault, the former getting seven years and the latter ten. Of the fate of Carruthers I have no record, but I am sure that his assault was not viewed very gravely by the court, since Woodley had the reputation of being a most dangerous ruffian, and I think that a few months were sufficient to satisfy the demands of justice.

Luck a Big Factor.

It was in Philadelphia last month that a "special dispatch" was written and published to the effect that Wild Bill Donovan's arm was gone and the great pitcher was all in. It was in Philadelphia a short time ago that Dead-and-Gone William pitched one of the best games of his career and shut the Athletics out with four little hits, no runner getting further than second base. And he held the Boston champions down to three hits a few days later. Further comment upon the fake telegram would be superfluous.

That game of last Tuesday was, all things considered, the best of the season. Each team got four hits, the only difference being that one of Detroit's was for two bases and another a home run drive over the fence by Sam Crawford. Each team did perfect fielding, each had four men left on bases, and Donovan and Waddell each gave transportation to three batters. Rube struck out seven, Bill eight. That's about as even a score as is likely to be made this season.

Baseball is a game in which skill is a strong element, but luck is the predominating one. The pitchers may use their most puzzling shoots, the batters meet them with all the science at their command, the fielders exert all their skill, and the game hang in the balance inning after inning; but finally luck steps in and hands down the decision. Instance the game at Philadelphia on Wednesday. The hits and errors were exactly even, but the Athletics had the luck to make hits at the right time and won by 4 to 1.

Next day at Boston the only difference was a single hit, yet Detroit won by 5 to 1. The same day at New York the hits were eight to seven, the errors one to two, both in favor of the Highlanders, but Chicago won, 5 to 1. It would be possible, in an errorless game of nine innings for a team to send 54 men to bat, for 45 of them to make hits, and still not a run to be scored. Luck would cut a big figure in such a game.

Kentucky Oil Fields.

Mt. Sterling, Ky., July 12.—Work in the Eastern Kentucky oil fields still goes on, with a number of new strikes. In the Montgomery field drilling still continues in the Duff well, with excellent indications for a fine flow of green oil. This is the only well being drilled at the present time. In the Estill field no new strikes were made last week, but forty wells are being pumped, yielding about 125 barrels daily, which goes to the Standard at 77 cents. The most active work is being done in the Wolfe field.

The Welsh company brought in a good ten-barrel well on the Garrison farm, while the John H. Morgan company struck good sand of green oil on the Drake farm. This well is good for fifty barrels. The well brought in by the Consolidated company, on the Hanks farm, was shot and made an excellent showing, the oil running very rapidly. The owners consider this a hundred-barrel well. Gibson & Co., with Marietta, O., people at its head, have started drilling on John H. Drake's farm, near Compton, while Beckett-Ismen company started two wells on the Cobin and Cundiff farms. Drilling will shortly begin in Breathitt and Lee counties, and the oil business will soon start with renewed vigor.

It is easy to call our impulses His inspiration.

Board of Public Works Meets This Afternoon to Execute Contracts For Streets.

OTHER FRESH CITY NEWS.

The board of public works will meet this afternoon in regular session to execute contracts with the Southern Bitulithic Co., and Thomas Bridges Sons, the contractors who secured the contract to build Kentucky avenue and Jefferson streets. The board will also hear reports from all departments but the execution of contracts is the most important matter to be acted on.

The war against dog owners for failure to pay a dog license tax has been started, Chief Collins instructing the police to take the names of every dog owner who has not secured a license. Warrants will be issued instead of the dogs being taken up, and the owners prosecuted in police court for breach of ordinance.

The property owners along the new streets to be improved under the contracts with the Southern Bitulithic company are sending in protests to the mayor, and copies of the same to the contracting company, giving warning that they will resist payment of the storm water sewers and also the streets. They are protesting against the material to be used in the new streets as well as against paying for the storm sewers. There is much complaint about the way the street inspector has of loosening the gravel on the streets he is repairing and then leaving the street in that condition without rolling it. Some of the streets, Eleventh from Jefferson to Broadway in particular, are in a bad condition, and are hardly passable.

Mr. A. G. Lant, of Evansville, who is furnishing brick for the reconstruction of South Third street from Kentucky avenue to Fourth and Broad streets, is in the city on business connected with the contract work and the shipment of his brick. He has already shipped enough brick to keep the contractors busy for several weeks, and says he will have the entire amount necessary to build the street here within the specified time and without delay to the contractors.

St. Louis, 24.1, 0.2 rise.
Mt. Vernon—10.5, 0.4 rise.
Paducah—15.3, 0.2 fall.

The City of Savannah due for St. Louis, came out of the Tennessee river this morning.

The Joe Fowler is today's Evansville packet.

The Dick Fowler got away on time this morning.

The Clyde leaves this evening at 6 o'clock for the Tennessee river.

The Chas. Turner left for the Tennessee this morning for ties.

The Ohio at Evansville and Mt. Vernon, will rise during the next two or three days. At Paducah and Cairo will continue falling during the next 36 hours, then probably rise for several days.

The Tennessee from Florence to the mouth, will rise during the next two or three days.

The Mississippi immediately below St. Louis, will commence rising within the next 24 hours. From Chester to Cairo will continue falling during the next 24 to 36 hours, then rise for several days.

"There ought to be more steamers in the Ohio river trade," said Captain William Stapleton of the Peters Lee, the other day while his boat was loading at the local port, "but I do not see much hope for more at present. The boats that are now in the trade are carrying good cargoes and all the passengers that they can handle, but at that the river is not getting one-fourth of the traffic that ought to come to it."

"There are two reasons for this state of affairs. The more, immediately of these two is that the railroads bring their switches and cars to the very door of the factories and eliminate wagon transportation. It is patent that the steamboats can not do this, but must have the freight brought to them. While the water rates are very low, still, by means of rebates and other methods of cutting down the tariff the railroads carry freight very cheaply. It may not be generally thought so but the steamboat carries freight faster than the railroads."

"The second cause of trade not coming to the river is the uncertainty of a boating stage. This year has been exceptionally good and there is every indication of navigable water this entire season. This river ought to be locked and dammed to the mouth, but I am fearful that none of this generation will live to see it done. It has taken twenty-five years to lock and dam the river up about Pittsburg. How long, then, at this rate do you think it would take to make improvements in the lower river?"

PEARL INDUSTRY

It is Reported One Gem Sold for $71,000.

Harrisburg, Ill., July 12.—The pearl industry along the Wabash river continues to yield handsomely to those who are following that business. Every day brings forth new reports of valuable pearls found in these waters. Jack Smith, a decorator and paper hanger, living on the Indiana side, is reported to have found a pearl in a mussel a few days ago weighing 24 grains, of perfect form and beautiful luster. The gem is said to be worth $600. Smith had been unable to work at his trade for several days, and to pass the time away he went down to the river and made his lucky find the first day out.

Several other pearls have been found the past week, ranging in price from $50 to $250. Pearl buyers in all the towns along the river make things lively on Saturdays, when the diggers flock to those places to dispose of their week's finds.

The latest and biggest pearl story afloat is to the effect that news comes from Paris, France, that a necklace made from pearls found in the Wabash river by mussel diggers and shipped across to Paris sold recently for $71,000.

A $100 FINE FOR GARVEY AND MORGAN

The Ship Caulkers Who Assaulted Ways Foreman McCarty.

The Trouble an Incident of the Caulkers' Strike On the Marine Ways Here.

OTHER NEWS OF LOCAL COURTS

George Garvey and Julian Morgan, the ship caulkers who assaulted Foreman Alec McCarty, of the ways, and his nephew, Alec McCarty, Jr. several days ago, were fined $100 and costs each in police court this morning for a breach of the peace, the warrant for malicious assault and confederating to do injury to another being dismissed.

Attorney R. T. Lightfoot represented the defense while the prosecution was conducted by County Attorney Eugene Graves and Judge James Campbell, Sr. The warrant charged two separate offenses, that of a breach of the peace and confederating to do injury to another, and the prosecution was made to elect which of the charges to try. It preferred the breach of the peace charge.

The trouble grew out of the caulkers' strike on the ways and other marine repairing plants. Garvey and Morgan were strikers until Supt. Taylor, of the docks, signed the agreement, and the two McCarty boys, who are employed on the ways, refused to walk out, but remained at work.

Joe Thomas and Emma Smith, colored, were fined $5 and costs each for acting in a disorderly manner on the streets.

The breach of ordinance case against Robert Bokwell, white, was continued until Saturday.

Frank Potts, white, was fined $1 and costs for drunkenness. He is a farmer residing in the county.

William Davis, white, charged with petty larceny, was tried this morning before Justice R. J. Barber, and was fined $5 and costs for trespass, the warrant charging petty larceny being dismissed. Davis entered the orchard of Mrs. F. P. Toof on the Cairo road and stole a lot of fruit.

Noles vs. Bryan.

Circuit Judge Wm. Reed this morning took up the case of W. J. Noles against Levy and Mollie Bryan but postponed hearing evidence until Attorney Marble could get up more pleadings.

The case is from Marshall circuit court, Judge Reed at the last term postponing hearing it until vacation, and the plaintiff is attempting to set aside the sale of a house and lot in Gilbertsville, which was sold by the master commissioner pursuant to a judgment in Marshall circuit court. The grounds for setting aside the sale are said to be technical.

Overworking a Typewriter.

(From the Philadelphia Record.)

"When a typewriter has been operated for several hours at a stretch it becomes a center of electrical phenomena," remarked a stenographer. "Touch it with something metallic and you will get a distinct shock. At the same time there will be a crackling sound and a spark will appear at one point of contact. If another person than the one who has been operating it should begin to pound the key-board after the machine has been in continuous use for a couple of hours he will experience a real electrical sensation, the pins-and-needles feeling of a foot asleep. Drawing the sheet of paper off the roller rapidly will charge the paper and it will crackle when laid on other paper. It will also adhere to the other sheets or to any surface with which it comes in contact and quite a big tug is necessary to loosen it. A long-worked typewriter seems to become an electrical plant on a small scale and will furnish all sorts of surprises."

"Pa," began Bobby, "may I ask one more question?"

"Um," replied pa, without looking up from his book.

"Well," said Bobby, "if they had clocks in the moon, would they be lunatics?"
